4. CONTENT OF A PROPOSAL

Applicants will have the choice to write their proposal either in French or in English.

The FRESH insists on strict compliance of the number of pages allowed for documents that shall be enclosed with the application form and stresses again the sovereign consideration of the Juries in case the file would exceed the applicable page limit.

One of the specificities of the FRESH Fund relates to the societal impact of the funded research programmes, as defined by the Board of Trustees of 25th June 2013:

“The FRESH Fund supports fundamental research projects whose outcomes are likely to improve the understanding or functioning of one sector in the society in the short-medium term at a local, regional, national or international level, from many perspectives such as economy, politics, culture etc.”

Applicants have the opportunity to justify the potential societal impact of their project in their application file. They should highlight the players, groups or sectors that are likely to benefit from the results of the research in the short-medium term.

Applicants must enclose with their application file a support letter from a referee outside the academic sphere.

The application file contains the main sections described in the table below.

SECTION	CONTENT

5. (PRE)SELECTION PROCEDURE, JURIES AND EVALUATION CRITERIA

Applications for a 1st Grant are evaluated by two juries: the first one is dedicated to cultural challenges, the second to economic and social challenges.

Each jury is made up of 3 civil society representatives, plus 9 members from CFB universities, respecting the balance between universities:

- 2 UCL, 2 ULB, 2 ULg
- 1 UMon, 1 UNamur, 1 USL-B

² Including every character and spaces

³ Including every character and spaces

⁴ Graphs and tables may be added (max. 2 pages) to the 4-page description.

⁵ Data can vary depending on the nature of the project and the scientific field.

⁶ Promoters and referees are required to provide a reference letter concerning applicants to a 1st Grant.

Applicants' promoters and co-promoters may not sit or even partially take part in the jury of their applicants.

When updated, the composition of the juries will be published on the F.R.S.-FNRS website this summer. The composition for the year 2015 is available at the following address: <http://www.fnrs.be/index.php/commissions-scientifiques>

Applicants shall select the jury themselves in the application form.

The Board of Trustees of the F.R.S.-FNRS has decided to establish a pre-selection based on the application files. This first evaluation step will focus on the scientific quality of the application (both the project and the applicant) and the societal impact of the research project (10%).

Pre-selected applicants are required to take an oral examination at the F.R.S.-FNRS, 5 rue d'Egmont, B-1000 Brussels. Each application file is assigned to a rapporteur, depending on the 2-6 descriptor fields selected by the applicant. The applicant is interviewed by members of the jury and the rapporteur, who leads the discussion.

Juries shall devote 30 minutes at most to each applicant.
The oral presentation of the applicant may not exceed 20 minutes.

The evaluation criteria that will be taken into account are the following:

CRITERIA
Quality of the research project: Feasibility, originality, host laboratory, work plan, societal impact and activity report (applicable only for applicants to a 1 st Grant 2 nd Year)
Competencies of the applicant with respect to his/her speciality (CV)
Presentation and answers given to questions about the project
Scientific knowledge in general

The evaluation grid is the following:

Categories	Grades
A	A+	outstanding
	A	excellent
	A-	very good
B	B+	good
	B	average
	B-	weak
C	C	insufficient

For applicants to a FRESH 1st Grant, juries will assess their capability to conduct their doctoral research in 4 years. Depending on the progress of the research work, juries may decide to recommend applicants whether for a 1st Grant 1st year or 1st Grant 2nd year.
